

Hello i am a resident in new haven that has my life and daily activities impacted in a positive way by see click fix. I am writing u in my constitute support of bill SB425. We need more accountability and transperency in office. After all we would with those that fun our own finances, why not our government? Our elected officials need to be just as accountable as the banks or financial institutions that handle our money. thank you for your time.

Michele Gay